

Business Software Documentation

In this documentation the end user is given a general instruction about the listed software program for owners of small businesses. The software listed incorporates all standardization formats required by governance and international law under proprietary licensing. This is a document designed to be used as a general overview of the listed software and it is advised that it should be read for operational purposes. This documentation intends to improve business process and interoperability.

- Pharmacy Business
- Pharmatics Inc.

Program Purpose

The purpose of the program is to replace minimum wage workers for sustainability and operations management in the field of Pharmacology.

Function: as a console-based SaaS Software as a Service log system

Objectives

The primary objectives of this software is to serve as a administrative log base and to encourage productivity in a licensed workspace.

Business Function

The business function of this software is to improve time management within a workspace.

Technical Function

The technical function is to manage business sustainability in the Pharmacology sector.